

Biography: Maureen Fraser, Secretary

Maureen was recently appointed Secretary of the CPHC Board; this follows her completion of 1-year on the Board in a Director role. Maureen has been a member of the CPHC Board September 2017.

Maureen has attained degrees from Queen's University in Fine Art (BAE), Education (B.Ed.), Public Administration (MPA) and Law (LL.B).

She brings a variety of skills and expertise to the CPHC Board with a strong background in human resources, labour relations and employment law in the health sector. Prior to her retirement, Maureen worked in senior management at Brockville General Hospital (BGH) as Vice President, Human Resources; during this time she participated in the 2006 amalgamation of St. Vincent de Paul Hospital and Brockville General Hospital.

Prior to her employment at BGH, Maureen spent twenty years as a Negotiator for health care unions, including the Association of Allied Health Professionals: Ontario (AAHP:O) and the Ontario Nurses' Association (ONA). She has experience working with hospitals, health units, community care access centers, nursing homes and municipal homes for the aged.

Maureen has been a member of the Brockville and District Hospital Foundation Board since 2010, serving on the Policy Committee, Strategic Planning Committee, and Nominating Committee.

The strengths and knowledge that Maureen has to share include a strong understanding of service needs, gaps and challenges. In addition to her keen interest in the CPHC organization, Maureen's skills and knowledge have been a tremendous asset to the Board and the communities we serve.
